

ProShow Gold 3 Video Menu

The run time is shown alongside the thumbnails

7:53 Introduction to ProShow Gold 3. Including customising the look of PSG, using the Light Box and useful tips and tricks and shortcuts.

8:16 Using Photoshop to re-size images and record it as an Action that will work on both landscape and portrait format images.. We also look at saving images as a transparency PSD file to be used in our slide shows.

7:17 Setting Preferences in ProShow Gold. This includes selecting your Image and Sound editor.

11:51 Producing a quick slide show. Adding titles and using random transitions and motion.

10:52 Layers and Slide Options part 1. In this video we look at selecting multiple images, Layers tab, Editing including Cropping, Adjustments, Colorize, Outline, Drop shadow, Motion and Layer Preview.

10:32 Layers and Slide Options part 2. Motion Styles, working with layers. Adding additional layers and Motion effects.

9:48 In this tutorial we look at how using Frames can really help to create a slide show that stands out from the others.

5:44 Collecting all the images and files using the Collect command. A real must to keep all you images, music and frames together.

12:34 The opening sequence. Adding titles, Opening curtains - and saving the show .

17:50 Balloons. Using Layers with PSD files and Transitions to create the Balloon montage sequence from Image 1 show.

9:47 Flying Balloons. In this video we use Transitions and Motion to create the effect of the balloons flying.

11:20 In this video we look at how we can create an image montage in our slide show.

11:21 Adding sound tracks. Here we look at trimming and fading sound track as well as adding additional tracks.

9:38 Experimenting with Transitions and timing. Transitions, slide timing and motions are explored. Vital for producing great slide shows.

10:18 In this video we look at the different ways we can Publish our slide shows.

ProShow Gold 3

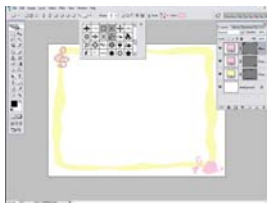

Making Frames and Backgrounds in Photoshop

6:32 Making curtains in Photoshop.

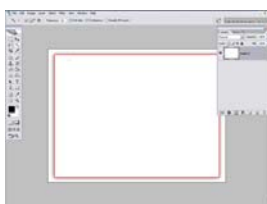

7:12 Creating a stage and adding lighting effects that can be used as backgrounds to your shows.

7:40 Using Paths in Photoshop to create frames. A great way to produce frames that can be used in your shows.

7:48 Creating a stage and adding a lighting effect. This is a great method of creating a background for your show.

6:48 Making a white frame with a drop shadow and saving it as a PSD file. Looks great in any type of slide show.

